A Centralised Support Ecosystem

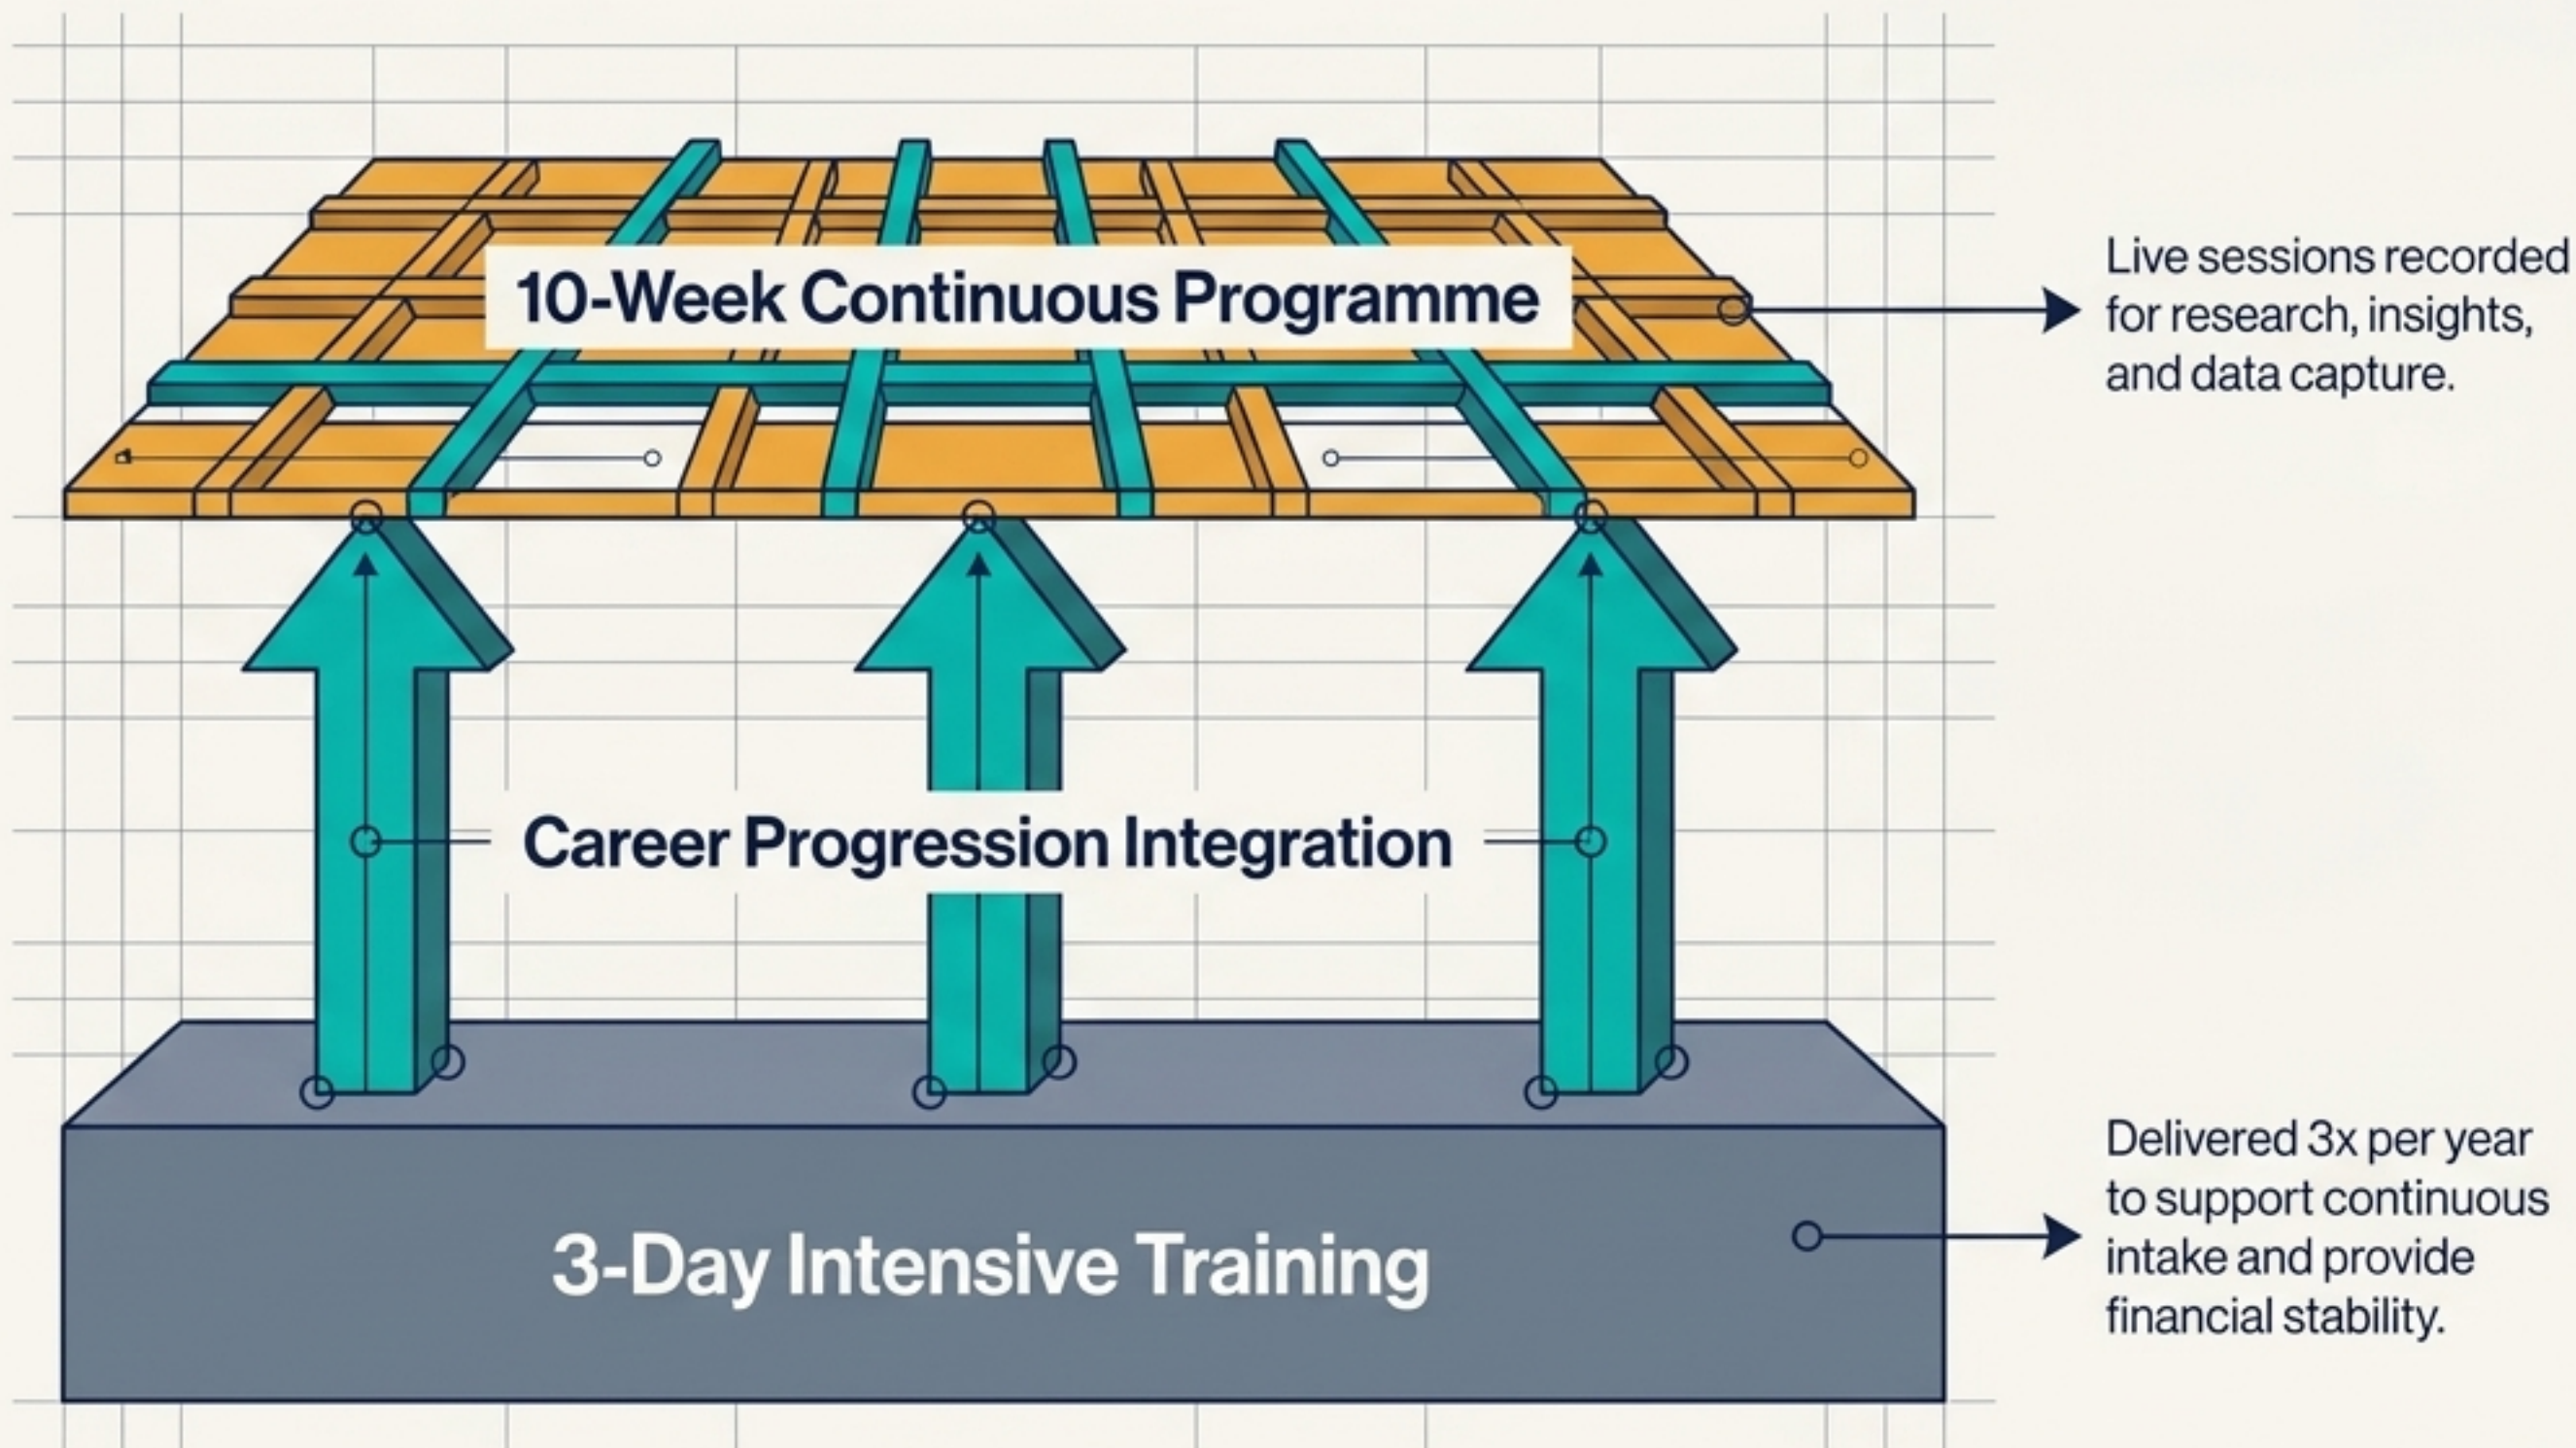

We are transitioning from a fragmented communication structure to a cohesive, secure learning environment where curriculum, scheduling, and technology revolve around practitioner development.

The Operational Paradigm Shift

Communication moves entirely to the internal school system, establishing a secure, professional standard for all development.

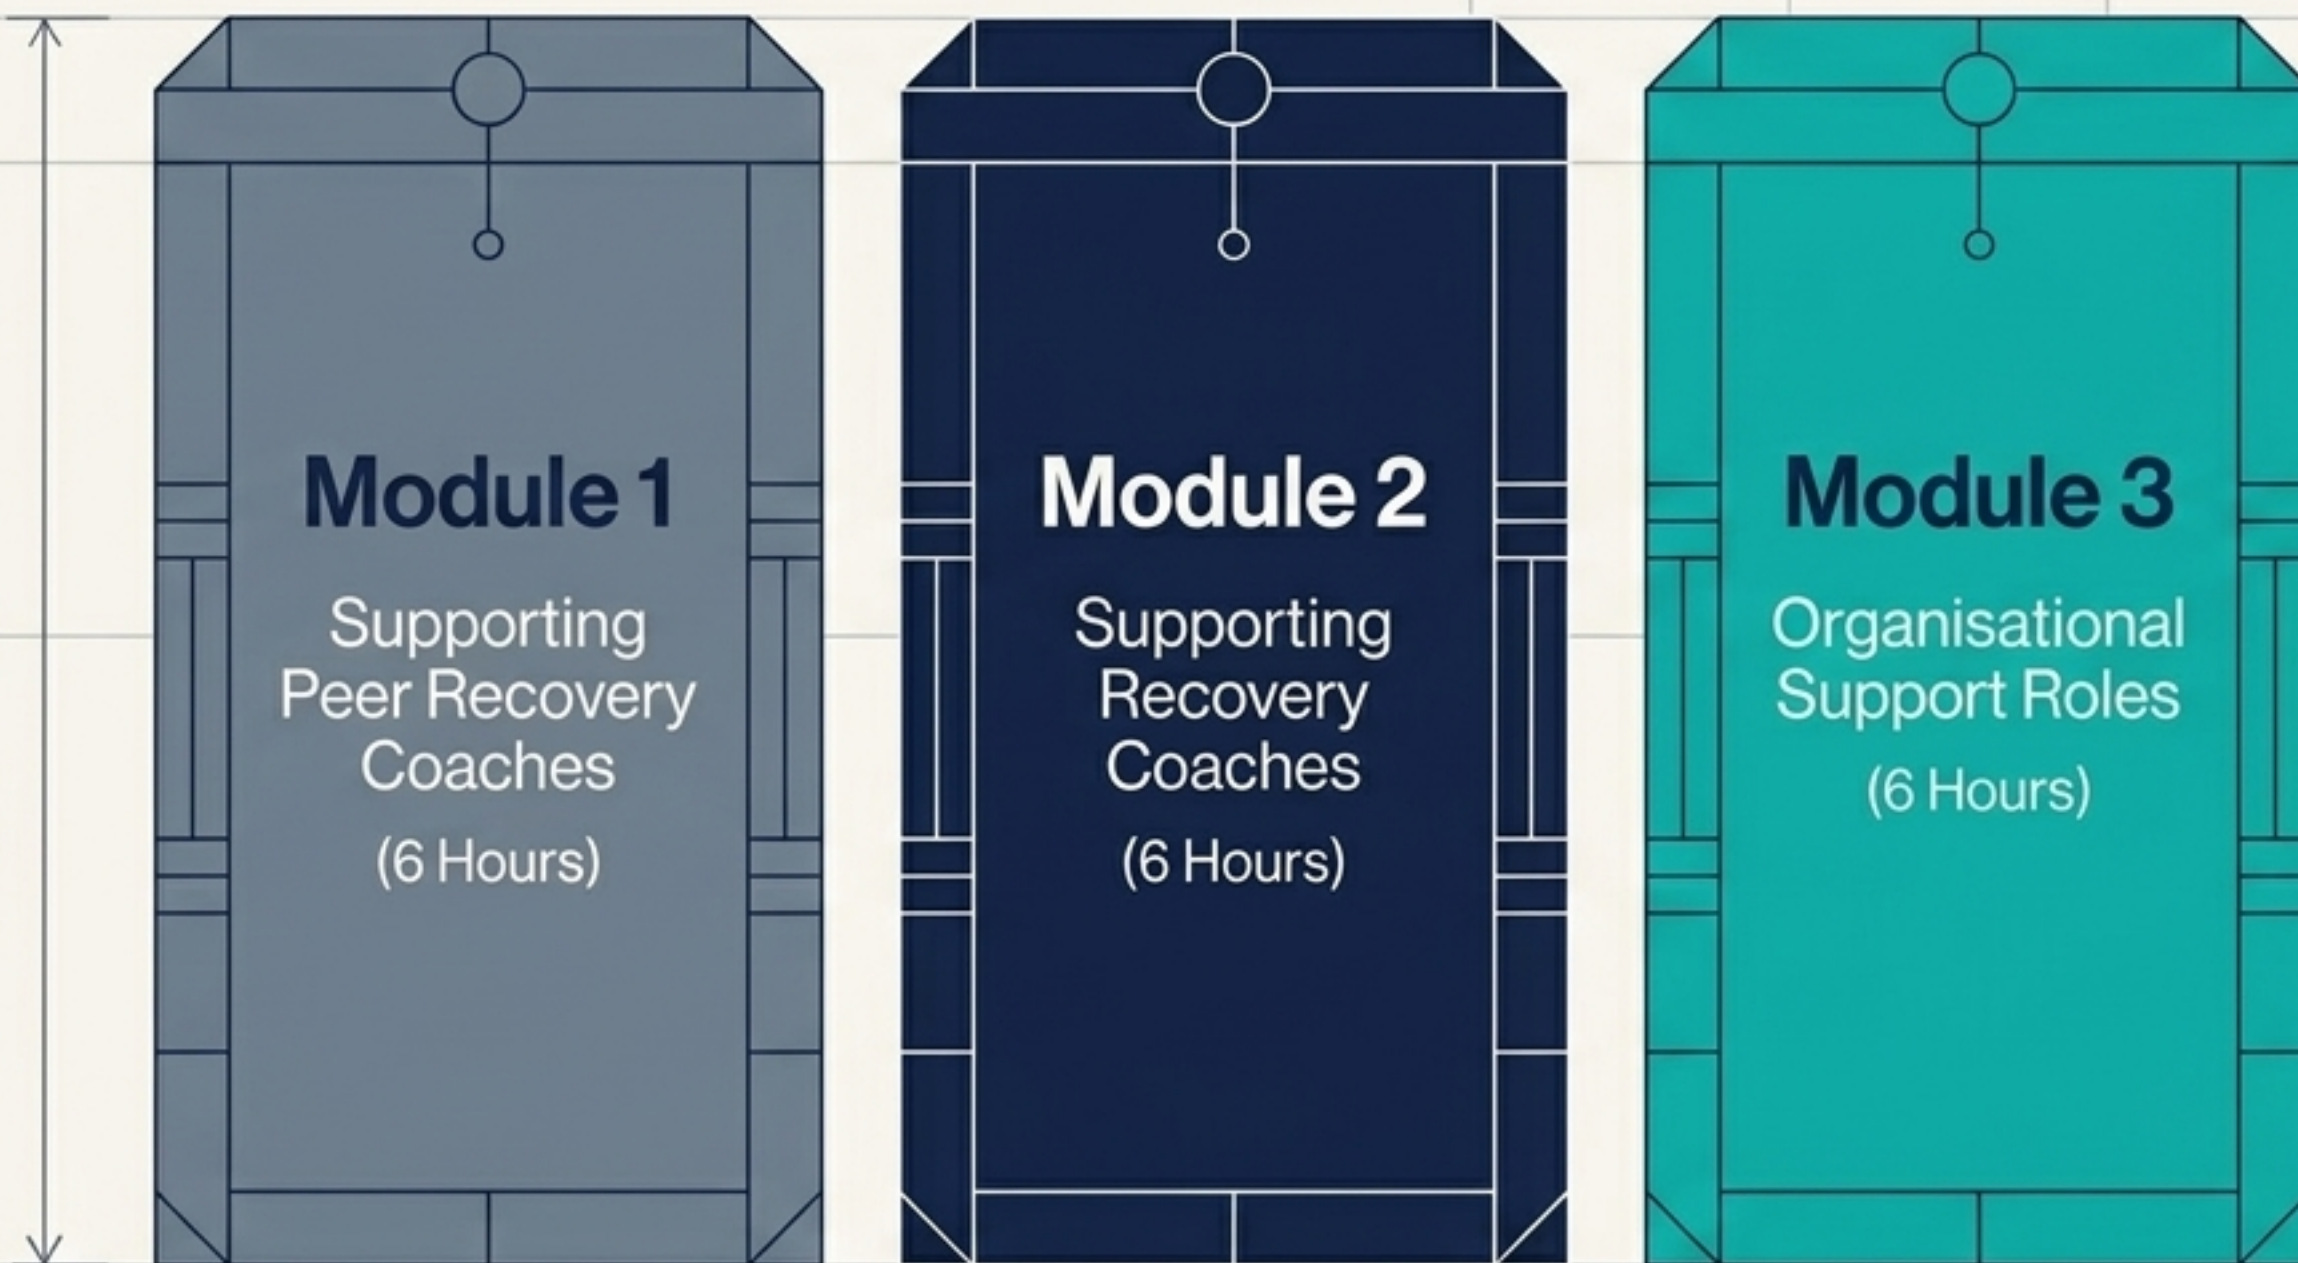

Curriculum Architecture

A structured, reliable cadence.

The three-day foundation sets the baseline, while the 10-week canopy provides the sustained systemic wellness practitioner training required for actual career progression.
